Rochester Guitar Club

was formed in October 2006 with the goal of providing a social nexus for local guitar enthusiasts to meet, keep in touch, play and trade songs and generally explore the many aspects of guitar. We are an informal group that enjoys and appreciates guitar music, lore and playing.

RGC is open to anyone interested in guitar music.

Steve Greene presents 'Jazz Lines'

Presentations -

have ranged from theory and music history, to guitar construction, PA systems & guitar equipment, as well as to the topic of how to survive in the music business.

Workshops - on diverse topics. Recent workshops have included Harvey Reid's 'Partial Capo,' Steve Rapson's 'Solo Performance & Stage Etiquette' and Jerry Preston's '2-Handed Tapping.'

Concerts-

by local performers as well as nationally known touring musicians.

Fred Vine plays the vintage guitar of legendary bluesman Lonnie Johnson
